Beyond Governance Named Winner in The Sunday Times Best Places to Work Awards 2025

LONDON, 10:00AM, FRIDAY 23 MAY 2025: Beyond Governance has been recognised as one of the UK's Best Places to Work in 2025 by The Sunday Times in powered by WorkL. In addition to receiving a national listing, the company is 'Highly Commended' in the category for Best Places to Work for Ethnic Minority Employees, reflecting its ongoing commitment to inclusion, fairness, and voice in the workplace.

This award celebrates organisations that lead in employee engagement, wellbeing, and purpose-driven leadership. Beyond Governance's selection highlights its distinctive culture. This is a workplace where every voice is heard, governance is embedded in practice, and purpose is matched by action.

As a boutique consultancy operating at the intersection of strategy, sustainability, and governance, Beyond Governance helps companies build the foundations of long-term success. The team's shared expertise, inclusive approach, and belief in governance as a driver of better business continue to define its impact and future direction.

Erika Eliasson-Norris, CEO of Beyond Governance:

"This award is a testament to the values we hold and the culture we've built. It is rooted in trust, inclusion, and voice. Governance starts from within. We cannot champion it for clients unless we live it ourselves. I'm incredibly proud of our team and what we've created together. It is not just about being a great place to work. It is about proving that good governance enables that to happen."
